* *

A VERY INTERESTING EARLY FIFTEENTH CENTURY FRENCH ILLUMINATED MS. WITH UNCONVENTIONAL DECORATIONS. The small drawings in the Calendar are very forceful and without borders. The large miniatures are fairly good, and are all one size, and represent the Four Evangelists, SS. XV

* * * A VERY BRILLIANT AND FRESH EXAMPLE OF LATE FIFTEENTH CENTURY FLEMISH ART. The figures are strangely dwarfed and the costuming consequently ungraceful, but the tout ensemble is highly effective. The subjects of the large miniatures are: The Annunciation (a very richly decorated interior), The Visitation, The Nativity, Offerings of the Magi, Presentation in the Temple (unconventional), Massacre of the Innocents, The Infant Jesus disputing in the Temple, Raising of Lazarus, Agony in the Garden, Betrayal of Christ, Christ before the High Priest, Christ before Pilate, Scourging of Christ, Christ crowned with Thorns, Christ bearing the Cross, The Crucifixion, Taking down from the Cross, Entombment, Coronation of the Virgin (a rich interior), Pentecost (a triptych), Celebration of the Mass, The Last Supper, The Day of Judgment, Christ Victorious.

SÆC. XV

* * * A FINELY DECORATED AND ILLUMINATED FRANCO-FLEMISH MANUSCRIPT. 5.

HORAE B. V. M. AD USUM ROMANUM, cum Calendario. FRENCH, FIFTEENTH CENTURY. ILLUMINATED MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM (163 ll. $8\frac{1}{2}$ by 6 in.) *finely written in bold gothic letter, long lines, 15 to a full page, Calendar in French in blue, red and gold, red and blue rubrics, some Prayers in French; 3 pages with decorative borders, decorative initials and details in the text; 12 FINE PAINTED AND ILLUMINATED ARCHED MINIATURES (4 by 3 in.) within charming deep borders of rich floreate scrolls, natural fruits and flowers, with narrow inner decorative borders; crushed brown morocco extra, antique gilt ornaments, g. e. by F. HORAE B. V. M. AD USUM SARUM, CUM CALENDARIO. ENGLISH, FIFTEENTH CENTURY. ILLUMINATED MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM (112 ll. $8\frac{3}{4}$ by 6 in.) finely written in bold gothic letter, long lines, 25 to a full page; Calendar and rubrics in red, 14 pages within fine decorative borders of floreate designs; 16 FINE PAINTED AND ILLUMINATED MINIATURES ($5\frac{1}{2}$ by $3\frac{1}{2}$ in.) within borders of a similar character; and many decorative initials and textual ornaments, modern boarded red velvet sm. 4to. SÆC. XV

* * * A VERY INTERESTING ENGLISH MS. with good miniatures and decorations of an unusual character. It has a very full Calendar, and was probably executed for the Diocese of Lincoln. An obit of THOMAS PENCHIN, 1470, occurs in the Calendar for October, and on the first leaf of Calendar is an old inscription, "Liber Johannis Pullani ex dono Richardi Bellases." A Reformation hand has erased the entry for the Translation of St. Thomas of Canterbury, and also the word "Pope" wherever it occurs. The Penchin family seem to have belonged to North Northants, and the Pullens and Bellases were old Yorkshire families. The subjects represented are The Agony, Betrayal, Coronation of the Virgin, Scourging of Christ, Bearing the Cross, Crucifixion, Entombment, Death of the Virgin, Day of Judgment, Funeral Service, Resurrection of the Dead, Christ rising from the Tomb, and SS. Jerome, John Baptist, Christopher, and Anna.

HORAE B. V. M. AD USUM ECCLESIAE GANDAVIENSIS (GHENT), CUM CALENDARIO. DUTCH, FIFTEENTH CENTURY. "Hier beginnen die getiden van onser liever Vrouwen." RICHLY ILLUMINATED MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM (136 ll. $7\frac{3}{4}$ by $5\frac{1}{2}$ in.) well-written in gothic letter, long lines, 22 to a full page, Calendar in red and black, rubrics in red, many illuminated initials and decorative details; 33 SUPERBLY DECORATED BORDERS of floreate scrolls, natural fruits and flowers, grotesque animals, etc. each having a LARGE HISTORIATED, ORNAMENTAL OR PORTRAIT INITIAL MINIATURE; 6 VERY FINELY PAINTED AND RICHLY ILLUMINATED ARCHED MINIATURES ($4\frac{1}{2}$ by $2\frac{3}{4}$ in.) surrounded by borders of a similar character to those described above; original Low Countries binding of oak boards, leather, line tooled, having a CARVING IN IVORY on each cover in high relief ($5\frac{1}{2}$ by $3\frac{1}{2}$ in.) representing Angels, with Symbols of the Passion, the Emblems of the four Evangelists at each corner; and Christ Enshrined, Angels trumpeting above, and figures of Moses and S. John Baptist below; one metal clasp and catches, enclosed in a French wooden case, covered with leather, richly tooled in Le Gascon's style [See PLATE?] sm. 4to. fino SÆC. XV

* * A REMARKABLY FINE AND RICH MS. by a Flemish artist of a high order of merit. It is said to have been executed in Ghent, as St. Bavo has a major festival in the Calendar, and in the school of Hugo van der Goes. The subjects of the large miniatures are The Annunciation (a gorgeous canopy interior), The Crucifixion, The Trinity (the Deity holding dead Christ), Pentecost (interior, Virgin and Apostles seated with books), Day of Judgment, and Christ's Triumph. The large historiated initial miniatures are chiefly occupied by Scenes in the Life of Christ and the Virgin; the heads in some of the others may represent members of the family for whom the MS. was executed.

HORAE B. V. M. AD USUM ROMANUM, CUM CALENDARIO. FRENCH, FIFTEENTH CENTURY. Lot 8—continued.

AND RICHLY ILLUMINATED MINIATURES, within decorative ornamental frames divided by five lines of text from a small miniature below; numerous ornamental initials and decorative textual ornaments, boarded blue velvet with gold figured ornamental end papers [See PLATE] sm. 4to. fino SÆC. XV

* * A VERY BEAUTIFUL EXAMPLE OF LATE FIFTEENTH CENTURY FRENCH ART, IN PRISTINE STATE. The large miniatures comprise The Annunciation, bold figures of the Angel and Virgin, small miniature of Adam and Eve tempted in Eden, below; The Visitation, small miniature below; The Shepherds, a shepherdess and flocks below; Offerings of the Magi, procession of the Wise Men led by a soldier in armour, below; Presentation in the Temple, procession below; Flight into Egypt, massacre of Innocents by soldiers in armour, below; Death of the Virgin, her Assumption below; Crucifixion, Christ bearing the cross below; Pentecost, dove in nimbus below; David Praying, in full armour, slaying of Goliath below; Job and his Friends, trois morts et trois vifs below. At the end is an apparently contemporary full-page miniature of "The Host of Dijon," with 9 ll. of MS. in later French hands, relating to the subject. The MS. appears to have been executed somewhere near Dijon in central France for a family named Millet, whose armorial bearings occur several times in the borders. In 1700 the MS. belonged to Du Tilliot, author of the Mémoires sur la Fête des Fous.

SÆC. XV*

* * A RICHLY DECORATED AND FINE MS. BY A GOOD ARTIST. The 12 miniatures properly belonging to it, and having full borders, represent S. John in Patmos, Pentecost (four small miniatures in the border), Crucifixion (rich decorative border in compartments), The Annunciation (decorative border with grotesque animals and birds), The Visitation (border of rich decorative work in small compartments, with grotesques and birds), The Nativity (rich decorative

8vo. SEC. XV

* * * A VERY BEAUTIFUL MANUSCRIPT WITH AN UNUSUALLY LARGE NUMBER OF MINIATURES, THE WORK OF AN ARTIST OF GENIUS. The miniatures are all of the same dimensions, all except one illuminated, without text on the reverses; the exception being the fine one of the ANNUNCIATION which is in camaieu gris in the style of FRA ANGELICO. The RAISING OF LAZARUS, the DEATH OF THE VIRGIN, and ST. CHRISTOPHER are also remarkable. It was taken to the River Plate by D. Fray Pedro de la Torre, the first Spanish Bishop there, in 1855 ; and according to Dr. Satur-nino Seguro, the owner in 1800, had been in possession of successive Bishops until it came into his hands.

* * A RICHLY DECORATED FRENCH MS. the predominant colour in the borders being green. It indicates a Rouen origin from the inclusion of SS. Maximus and Venerand as a major festival in the Calendar. The miniatures appear to be distinctively English, but the decorative borders are those usual to French Hours of the period.

The subjects comprise: The Annunciation (good, angel in pinkish grey); The Visitation; The Crucifixion (good, Mary and John only); The Pentecost (good); The Nativity (good); The Shepherds (good); Offerings of the Magi (good); Presentation in Temple (good); Flight into Egypt; Coronation of Virgin, and David penitent.

BREVIARIUM AD USUM ROMANUM (FRANCISCANUM) cum Calendario.

FLEMISH, FOURTEENTH CENTURY. ILLUMINATED MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM (692 ll. $7\frac{1}{2}$ by 5 in.) well written in gothic letter, red and black, double columns of 32 lines, full Franciscan Calendar in red and black; every page with ornamental initials, 10 small historiated miniatures; 15 fine historiated initials, numerous textual ornaments, etc.; 13 FINELY PAINTED AND ILLUMINATED SEMI-ARCHED MINIATURES ($4\frac{1}{4}$ by $3\frac{1}{4}$ in.) within borders of decorative floreate scrolls, etc. interspersed with grotesques, human and bestial; contemporary Low Countries binding in oaken boards, with panel stamps in small compartments of griffins, bees, flowers, etc. and legend "Jhesus Nasarene Rex Judaeorum" in each panel, clasps, in excellent preservation [See PLATE] thick sm. 4to. SÆC. XV

* * A VERY FINE FLEMISH BREVIARY, probably for the use of Tournay, BY A FIRST-RATE ARTIST, AND VERY INTERESTING FROM ITS CONTEMPORARY STAMPED BINDING (not in Weale's Rubbings). The LARGE MINIATURES represent: An Emperor asleep on a throne with four counsellors, civil and religious, also sleeping, a saint awakening the emperor with a wand, and bearing a scroll on which is written "surgite hora est," the Star of Bethlehem appearing through the window, an angel sounding the hour on a clock; The Nativity within a remarkable figured border of the Wise Men on horseback and the Shepherds adoring, in the background of the miniature a Sibyl shows King Herod the Ara Coeli; Resurrection of Christ, Christ in nimbi standing, Three Maries with ointment boxes, three armoured soldiers, angel at the tomb, cross and city in background; The Ascension, Christ in the clouds, angels and apostles adoring; Pentecost, a fine interior group; An Ass adoring the Host held by S. Antony of Padua, abbey exterior; David playing before Saul, who casts a javelin at him; Conception of the B. V. M.; The Circumcision; The Annunciation; Burial and Assumption of the Virgin, S. Thomas receiving her girdle, fine; Birth of the Virgin, and S. Francis receiving from the Pope the Approbation of his Rule. The smaller miniatures and historiated initials are also very fine and represent Biblical and Church incidents. The occurrence of all the Special Feasts connected with the Franciscan Order, as well as the miniature mentioned above, show the MS. to have been executed for a follower of that Rule.

An entry in the Calendar for August "Dominica proxima post festum Decollationis 6. Johannis Baptisti dedicatio Ecclesiae fratrum Minorum in Tornaco IX Maius duplex," connects it with the Monastery of the Fratres Minores in Tournay. In many borders occur a coat-of-arms (22 times), az. a bend or between six pellets of the same, which have been attributed alternatively to the families of Carondelet and Basquin de Provence.

8vo. SÆC. XVI

* * * A VERY INTERESTING WELL-DECORATED MS. WITH VERY FINE MINIATURES OF THIS LATE PERIOD. It was executed for MADAME GERMAINE BALLUE DE VILLEPREUX DAME D'ALENÇON, having her arms quartered with Alençon in the third miniature, and her initials occur throughout the MS. Her first husband appears to have been Charles Bâtard d'Alençon, Seigneur de Cuny et de Camie en Normandie, son of René d'Alençon. In the third miniature she appears as his widow. She afterwards married Claude Beinon Seigneur du Plessis aux Tournelles. The full-page miniatures represent S. John in Patmos; The Agony in Gethsemane; The Widow d'Alençon at a prie-dieu, a Bishop, S. Christopher and Our Lady of Loreto in the background; Opposite The Annunciation; The Visitation; The Crucifixion; Pentecost; The Nativity; Offerings of Shepherds; Offerings of the Magi; Presentation in the Temple; Flight into Egypt; Coronation of the Virgin; Bathsheba (a brilliant miniature); Job and his Friends; The Trinity (a fine miniature); The Virgin in a nimbus with emblems of her various titles; Our Lady of Loreto adored by the Widow d'Alençon. The outside margins of the large miniatures are unfortunately cut into, but the MS. is in first-rate condition, and brilliant throughout. The Calendar has a descriptive French quatrain to each month. The small miniatures are of a very high order of merit.

* * The 13 full-page miniatures in this MS. are VERY REMARKABLE FOR THEIR BEAUTY, as well as for the unusual nature of the subjects they represent, and their unusual treatment. They all have lower marginal miniatures, unconnected generally with the main subject. They are as follows:—I, THE FOUR EVANGELISTS in four compartments, lamb and flag in centre, Martyrdom of S. John in lower margin; II, THE VIRGIN AS PROTECTOR OF SAINTS, a fine group, the chief figures being a King of France and a Pope, Madonna and Child below adored by a man and woman; III, THREE MARIES, MARTHA AND S. Each miniature has an historiated initial beginning the four lines of text which separate the larger subject from that in the lower border. HORAE B. V. M. AD USUM GALLICANUM, cum Calendario. FRENCH, FIFTEENTH CENTURY. RICHLY ILLUMINATED MANUSCRIPT ON VELLUM (128 ll. $5\frac{3}{4}$ by 4 in.) written in bold gothic letter, long lines, 14 to a full page, full Calendar in French, in red, blue and gold, outer borders of every page, including Calendur, decorated with elegant floreate ornament, some having pots of flowers, the Calendar having as well small marginal miniatures of the Occupations of the Month, and Signs of the Zodiac; numerous illuminated large and small ornamental initials and textual decorations, 13 FINELY PAINTED AND BRILLIANTLY ILLUMINATED ROUND-ARCHED MINIATURES ($3\frac{1}{4}$ by $2\frac{1}{2}$ in.) within borders of very rich floreate decoration interspersed with grotesque human figures, etc. bound in modern violet velvet, with massive silver-gilt ornamental corners, clasp, and coat-of-arms of Jeanne d'Albret and the Duc de Vendôme in centres, gilt gaufered edges, in a brown morocco slip case [See PLATE] sm. 8vo. SÆC. XV

* * A VERY BEAUTIFUL AND RICHLY DECORATED MS. It has on the leaf before the miniature of the Annunciation an emblazoned coat-of-arms of Jeanne d'Albret Queen of Navarre and her husband the Duc de Vendôme, below which is the signature "LOYS SENESCHAL, 1562." It cannot have been originally executed for the Queen, as she was not born until 1528, and the MS. is of late fifteenth century (c. 1480). But it must have come into the Queen's possession, and the coat-of-arms then inserted, probably at the date of the Seneschal's entry in 1562. However that may be, the miniatures are the work of a first-rate French artist, and represent the following subjects: I, THE FOUR EVANGELISTS in four compartments, A VERY RICH MINIATURE; II, MAN AND WIFE KNEELING BEFORE S. BARBARA; III, THE ANNUNCIATION; IV, THE VISITATION; V, THE NATIVITY; VI, THE SHEPHERDS; VII, OFFERINGS OF THE MAGI; VIII, PRESENTATION IN THE TEMPLE, Church interior with a baptismal font; IX, FLIGHT INTO EGYPT; X, CORONATION OF THE VIRGIN; XI, DAVID PENITENT; XII, PENTECOST (peculiarly treated); XIII, OFFICIUM MORTUORUM.

8vo. SEC. XVI

* * A BEAUTIFUL EXAMPLE OF THE MINIATURIST'S ART OF THE PERIOD OF FRANCIS I AND THE FRENCH RENAISSANCE. Its attribution to Geoffrey Tory is caused by the remarkable resemblance between much of the decoration in this MS. and that used in his printed editions of the Horae. It also resembles very much the splendid MS. by Tory in the Hamilton collection sold in these rooms in May, 1889. Whether Tory's own work or not, it can only be regarded as an exquisite volume. The Calendar miniatures are very good and interesting, representing Boys at School playing golf or hockey, A Boy being birched at school, Grafting and Pruning Vines, Lovers walking, Lovers in a garden with Musical Instruments, Sheep Shearing, Mowing, Reaping, Ploughing, Treading Grapes, Buying and Selling Pigs, and Pigsticking. The large miniatures comprise the following subjects : I, THE BETRAYAL OF CHRIST,

JOHN AND DEAD CHRIST at the foot of the Cross. One page has a pen-and-ink outline of an architectural border, which was probably intended to be filled in with another miniature.

Italian miniaturist Antonio Sinibaldi for Queen Isabel de Baux, wife of Frederic III of Aragon. In the borders of each of the four pages are shields of arms with the initials Y. C. (Ysabel of Calabria) in a monogram, the male quarterings having been partly erased, probably when Isabel became a widow; the widow's cordelière is also shown in margins. The borders of the first two pages contain seven death's heads, four crowned and one with the crown falling off. Five of these are marked with the Calabrian cross, and are said to represent the five Kings of Naples, Alfonso I, Ferdinand I, Alfonso II, Ferdinand II, and Ferdinand III, the latter being dethroned by Louis XII, as indicated by the falling crown. These borders have also two small heads of Saints, the remainder consisting of rich floreate arabesques. The subject of the miniature is the RAISING OF LAZARUS, and on the opposite page an initial miniature of a Saint holding a death's head. The other two illuminated pages occur before the Seven Penitential Psalms, the large one representing a beautiful figure of David having just cut off the head of Goliath, the initial miniature on the opposite page being a fine bust of K. David penitent; in the borders eight small heads of Saints, the Queen's monogram, nude boys, floreate pendants and rich arabesque foliage.

The TWO MINIATURES are of CONSIDERABLE BEAUTY and VERY DELICATE FINISH, and form with the opposite pages good examples of the style of Art of Illumination of the best Italian Renaissance Period.

7. Les Récompenses accordées par le Roi et par Madame la Duchesse d'Angoulême à Mr. Descloseaux

AN ORIGINAL UNPUBLISHED MANUSCRIPT OF 98 PAGES, illustrated by 12 choice contemporary engravings, of which five are portraits of Louis XVI, Marie Antoinette and the Dauphin, PRINTED IN COLOURS, by Bovi, Gabrielle, etc. after du Creu, Culeis, Boze and Sauvage; 2 plain portraits of Louis XVI; 2 portraits of Louis XVIII; an engraving by St. Aubin, allegorical of the Constitution of 1791, with portrait of the King, and 2 plates containing the heads of the whole of the Royal Family in 1791 and 1815; original red morocco, broad gilt ornamental borders, green watered-silk linings, g. e. 4to. 1815

* * * This extremely interesting manuscript was evidently the work of an ardent Royalist, who, in all probability, had himself witnessed the tragic closing scenes in the life of his King and Queen, and, collecting the contemporary portraits, formed the volume when the Restoration presented a fitting opportunity. The two large coloured portraits of Louis XVI and Marie Antoinette at the commencement are among the finest ever engraved of the unfortunate pair, and are VERY RARE. Another portrait of the king is supplemented by a vignette of his execution, apparently engraved shortly after the event.
